Atlanta Botanical Garden - Expansion

Catharanthus roseus ‘Cora Apricot’

Cora Apricot vinca

Family: Apocynaceae

Walled Garden: 39 | Wonderland: 124 | TOTAL 163

HABIT

OTHER

OTHER

FLOWER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous
Evergreen

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: 14–16 in tall × 22–25 in wide (mid-range). Mounded tender perennial (often grown as annual)

Sun

Water

Soil
Prefers average to moist well-drained soil

Zone 8a
Hardy USDA zones 9–11 as perennial; grown as annual in Zone 8a. Excellent heat tolerance

PLANTING NOTES

Establishment
Low maintenance. Suitable for containers, borders, or mass plantings

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Garden cultivar of Catharanthus roseus (Madagascar native). Cora series bred for disease resistance and heat tolerance

Form
Evergreen tender perennial. Dark green glossy foliage. Apricot flowers with contrasting eye. Long bloom season. Cora series features large flowers and superior heat/disease tolerance

Foliage
Not stated

Flowers and fruit
Not stated

Bark
Not stated

HEALTH

Health
Disease resistant (aerial Phytophthora)

Symptoms
None stated