Canna × generalis ‘Black Knight’

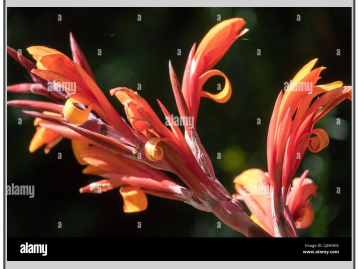

Black Knight canna

Family: Cannaceae

Reflective_Mirror: 9 TOTAL 9

HABIT

OTHER

OTHER

FLOWER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous Herbaceous

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: 4–6 ft tall × 2 ft wide (mid-range).
Upright rhizomatous perennial

Sun

Water

Soil
Prefers rich, consistently moist to wet soil

Zone 8a
Hardy USDA zones 7–11 (rhizomes may need protection or lifting in colder areas). Suitable for Atlanta Zone 8a as a perennial or with winter mulch

PLANTING NOTES

Establishment
Medium maintenance. Keep soil moist.
Lift rhizomes in cold climates if needed

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Garden hybrid (Canna × generalis group)

Form
Herbaceous. Large bronze to near-black foliage. Very dark red flowers from midsummer to autumn. Dramatic dark foliage with red flowers. Suitable for borders or containers

Foliage
Not stated

Flowers and fruit
Not stated

Bark
Not stated

HEALTH

Health
Possible slugs, snails, spider mites, rust, leaf spots

Symptoms
None stated