Camellia sasanqua ‘Green 01-006’

Green 01-006 sasanqua camellia

Family: Theaceae

HABIT

OTHER

OTHER

FLOWER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous
Evergreen

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: About 4 ft tall × 7 ft wide in landscape (dense, low, spreading). suitable as ground cover. S. Plant Patent USPP27597P2; NC State species notes

Sun

Water

Soil
Prefers well-drained acidic soil

Zone 8a
Hardy at least USDA zones 7b–9. Suitable for Atlanta Zone 8a. S. Plant Patent; NC State

PLANTING NOTES

Establishment
Low to medium maintenance. Suitable for ground cover use

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Garden cultivar of Camellia sasanqua (Japan native). Seedling from open pollination of ‘Silver Dollar’ in Alabama. S. Plant Patent

Form
Evergreen. Elliptic to oval leaves. Semi-double bright pink-purple flowers with ruffled margins in mid to late fall. S. Plant Patent. Patented selection (USPP27597P2). Compact spreading habit. Floriferous. S. Plant Patent

Foliage
Not stated

Flowers and fruit
Not stated

Bark
Not stated

HEALTH

Health
Good resistance to root rot (Phytophthora cinnamomi) and dieback (Glomerella cingulata). S. Plant Patent

Symptoms
None stated