Tricyrtis hirta Miyazaki
Tricyrtis hirta Miyazaki

Passage N_S: 9 TOTAL 9

OTHER

OTHER

OTHER

FLOWER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous
Hardy Zones 4–8. Suitable for shaded woodland gardens in Atlanta. Protect from extreme heat and provide consistent moisture

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: Clump-forming perennial, 1.5–2 ft tall and wide.
Arching stems

Sun

Water

Soil
Partial to full shade. Moist, organically rich, well-drained, slightly acidic soils

Zone 8a
Hardy Zones 4–8. Suitable for shaded woodland gardens in Atlanta. Protect from extreme heat and provide consistent moisture

PLANTING NOTES

Planting
None stated

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Cultivar of Tricyrtis hirta, native to Japan

Form
Upright to arching herbaceous perennial with hairy stems. Ladder-like leaf arrangement

Foliage
Oval to oblong green leaves with clasping bases, often with thin yellow margins. Hairy

Flowers and fruit
Late summer to fall, white to pale lilac orchid-like flowers heavily spotted with purple, borne in leaf axils along the stems

Bark
Not stated

HEALTH

Health
Relatively pest-free. Watch for slugs and snails.
Deer resistant. (Gardenia, Plant Delights)

Symptoms
None stated