Calibrachoa x Trailing Pink

Trailing Pink million bells

Also known as: Mini-petunia | Family: Solanaceae

Orangerie: 11 TOTAL 11

HABIT

OTHER

OTHER

FLOWER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous
Trailing annual

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: 3–12 in tall × 12–24 in wide (trailing). Low-growing annual or tender perennial with cascading habit. com

Sun

Water

Soil
Prefers well-drained, acidic potting mix (pH 5–6.5); sensitive to high pH

Zone 8a
Tender perennial in zones 9–11; grown as annual in Zone 8a. Suitable for Atlanta containers and hanging baskets. com; Proven Winners

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Garden hybrid (South American parentage). Not native. com

Form
Trailing annual. Small oval leaves; abundant pink trumpet-shaped flowers all season. com. Prolific bloomer. Attracts hummingbirds. Heat tolerant. com

Foliage
Not stated

Flowers and fruit
Not stated

Bark
Not stated

PLANTING NOTES

Establishment
Easy maintenance. Best in containers or hanging baskets; avoid overwatering

HEALTH

Health
No serious problems stated. Sensitive to poor drainage and high pH

Symptoms
None stated