Ficus pumila
Creeping Fig

Walled Garden: 25 TOTAL 25

HABIT

OTHER

LEAF

OTHER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous
Evergreen

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: Height: 10–15 feet (or more as a climber). Spread: 3–6 feet as groundcover. [Monrovia]

Sun

Water

Soil
Adaptable. Prefers well-drained soil. [NC State Extension]

Zone 8a
Reliable evergreen climber in Atlanta. Handles heat and humidity well. May show some winter bronzing or tip burn in exposed sites. [Local performance]

PLANTING NOTES

Establishment
Excellent for walls, fences, and as a groundcover. Can be aggressive. Prune to control. [Monrovia]

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Not stated

Form
Vigorous evergreen vine or groundcover. Climbs by aerial rootlets. Dense, self-clinging habit. Fast growth rate. [Monrovia] [NC State Extension]. Commonly used for covering masonry walls. Juvenile form is most commonly sold. [Monrovia]

Foliage
Small, heart-shaped to ovate leaves, 1 inch long, dark green, on juvenile growth. Mature growth has larger leaves. Evergreen. [Monrovia]

Flowers and fruit
Not stated

Bark
Mature stems woody when allowed to develop. [Secondary]

HEALTH

Health
Generally healthy. Occasional scale.
No serious problems stated. [NC State Extension]

Symptoms
None stated