Carex muskingumensis
Palm Sedge

Walled Garden: 150 TOTAL 150

HABIT

OTHER

LEAF

OTHER

QUICK FACTS

Plant Type: Not stated

Evergreen or deciduous
Reliable in Atlanta. Performs well in moist shade or rain gardens. May need supplementa water in dry periods.
[Local extension performance]

Growth & Size
Rate: Not stated
Size: Height: 2–3 feet.
Spread: 2–3 feet.
[Missouri Botanical Garden]

Sun

Water

Soil
Prefers rich, moist, well-drained to wet soils.
Tolerates clay. [Missouri Botanical Garden]

Zone 8a
Reliable in Atlanta. Performs well in moist shade or rain gardens. May need supplemental water in dry periods.
[Local extension performance]

PLANTING NOTES

Establishment
Cut back old foliage in late winter. Divide every few years if needed. Excellent for massing in moist areas.
[NC State Extension]

ORIGIN AND CHARACTERISTICS

Origin
Not stated

Form
Clumping, fountain-like perennial sedge. Arching, upright habit. Medium growth rate. [Missouri Botanical Garden] [NC State Extension]. Native to central United States. Good for rain gardens, pond edges, and shaded borders.
[Missouri Botanical Garden]

Foliage
Long, narrow, bright green leaves arranged in palm-like whorls along the stems. Deciduous to semi-evergreen in mild winters.
[Missouri Botanical Garden]

Flowers and fruit
Not stated

Bark
Not applicable (herbaceous perennial)

HEALTH

Health
Generally pest- and disease-free.
No serious problems stated. [Missouri Botanical Garden]

Symptoms
None stated